

Case Study 01 – Thermal Oil Boiler for Asphalt Mixing Plant

Project Image 1

This project involved the supply of a thermal oil boiler system for an asphalt mixing plant. The system was designed to provide stable and continuous heat for asphalt production under high-load operating conditions.

The solution improved fuel efficiency, ensured precise temperature control, and reduced operational downtime. The client achieved consistent product quality and reliable long-term operation.