

Case Study 03 – Hot Water Boiler for District Heating

Project Image 3

This project focused on providing a hot water boiler solution for a district heating application. The system was designed for continuous operation and seasonal load variation.

The solution delivered reliable heat supply, improved energy utilization, and ensured safe and stable performance throughout the heating season.